

SIX NATIONS RUGBY 2008 – Croke Park

After the 2007 Six Nations Ireland stands out with France as one of the dominant sides after narrowly missing out on the Grand Slam by point's difference only. Ireland face three home games in which current form suggests Ireland should win. They do however face tough away tests against France and what could be a title decider against England.

Hospitality Facilities

JURYS CROKE PARK HOTEL

Situated adjacent to Croke Park Stadium, this 4* venue is the ideal location to entertain your most important clients. Bookings of 2 upwards can be made with private tables available for 10 guests.

JAMES JOYCE CENTRE

Located within a ten minute walk from Croke Park Stadium this beautiful Georgian House, which is actually a museum of James Joyce's work, offers an atmospheric and sophisticated dining experience. At the close of the day, O'Connell Street and the city centre is only a five minute walk away. Bookings for 2 upwards can be made with private tables for bookings of 8 or more.

PLATINUM PACKAGE INCLUDES:

- Luxurious hospitality facility
- Reserved seated match ticket
- Champagne reception
- Complimentary bar
- Four course luncheon
- Fine wines and liqueurs
- Post-match refreshments
- Colour TV and video facilities
- Souvenir programme
- Celebrity guest speaker
- Floral décor
- Individual guest documentation
- VIP hostess service

Cost per person (ex VAT)

	Jurys Croke Park	James Joyce	Hosp. Only
Ireland v Italy Saturday 2 February	£395.00	TBA	£215.00
Ireland v Scotland Saturday 23 February	Sold Out	£515.00	£235.00
Ireland v Wales Saturday 8 March	Sold Out	£515.00	£235.00

Galleria Box Office Ltd
Unit 21, Hays Galleria, Tooley Street
London, SE1 2HD

Tel: (020) 7929 5622 Fax: (020) 7929 5182
Email: info@galleriaevents.co.uk

Click here to purchase a license to remove this image