

SIX NATIONS RUGBY 2008 – Stadio Flaminio

Italian rugby is improving on a yearly basis. During the 2007 championships Italy won their first ever away game against Scotland and beat Wales at home! The 2008 championships see Italy face both England and Scotland with the game against England the weekend before Valentine's Day.

The Stadio Flaminio provides a unique and intimate setting for international rugby union (25,000 capacity), allowing you to get close to the action. A weekend in this magnificent city is a welcome addition to the rugby season.

5* GRAND HOTEL PARCO DEI PRINCIPI

The excellent Parco dei Principi is situated only a short 10-minute transfer to the stadium. Located within the magnificent botanic gardens of Rome – The Villa Borghese, the hotel is the ideal venue to impress important clients. Bookings of 2 upwards can be made with private tables available for 8 – 12 guests. Coach transfer is included.

STADIUM MARQUEE

The official Italian Rugby Federation marquee provides an informal hospitality experience with the convenience of being situated within the stadium complex. Bookings can be made for a minimum of 2 guests with private tables available for bookings of 10.
